

date who was definitely discussed in the entire session was E. C. Delano of Las Vegas, and the lieutenant governor, up to noon, had far more strength than any other candidate for the governorship.

Isaac Barth gained some followers during the morning session, but not enough to put him in a position of advantage. Telegrams from Albuquerque and other parts of the state lent some strength to the sellers' boom.

Gov. McDonald told the advisory committee, it is understood, that talk of stampeding the convention for him was idle, and he would not be a candidate under any condition.

This was the way matters stood at eleven o'clock, when the governor's temporary chairman called the convention to order.

The Permanent Organization.

Trinidad G. DeSoto, chairman of the committee of permanent organization, presented its report, naming Secretary of State Antonio Lujan permanent chairman; 28 vice presidents, one from each county; Carlos Madrid, permanent secretary; two assistant secretaries, and his immediate committee.

The committee recommended nominations in the following order:

1. Three presidential electors.
2. The congressional.
3. Corporation commissioners.
4. Governor.
5. Lieutenant governor.
6. Secretaries of state.
7. Treasurer.
8. Attorney general.
9. Superintendent of schools.
10. Commissioner of public lands.
11. Auditor.
12. Supreme court justice.
13. United States senator.

The convention adjourned this afternoon, placing the governor's nomination of corporation commissioners and the report was then adopted.

Proposed Invitations.

The resolutions committee was given further time, and a committee consisting of M. F. French of Las Cruces, Dr. McLaughlin of Las Vegas, and George Sosa of Santa Fe, was appointed to escort the permanent chairman to the political meetings. Lujan made a brief, enthusiastic speech along party lines, which was cordially received. At its conclusion an invitation was read from the Progressive state convention, inviting the Democratic convention to attend the opening of that convention at 2 o'clock this afternoon, and have the address of the keynote speaker, Ralph C. Johnson.

The invitation was accepted and held, keeping, and upon motion of B. H. Keyes, of Raton, the Democratic convention then took a recess until the beginning of this present session, leaving the Progressives to have it debated in the hall of the house of representatives. A committee was appointed to notify the Progressives of this action and the convention then went into recess.

Riker for District Attorney.

Samuel F. N. M. Allard, D. G. DeSoto, John T. Clegg, Louis and Louis C. Phillips nominated H. A. Kiser to be the Democratic candidate for district attorney for those counties.

C. Phillips of Raton is the Republican nominee.
